COAL CODE IS SUBMITTED TO U.S. OPERATORS

Collective Bargaining Clause Inserted Unamended

By Joseph T. Miller Associated Press Staff Writer. Washington, Sept. 7.—(A)—Hugh S. Johnson tonight handed the nation's bituminous coal operators the administration's proposal for their code of competition.

The substitute for the 30 different codes the industry submitted called for basic minimum wages ranging from $5.63 in Montana to $3 in Ala bama: a maximum work week averaging 36 hours, and regulation of coal prices, by sales agencies such as Appalachian Coals, Inc., or district code authorities.
